Press Release

Enser Communications Ltd. completes Integration of Growintelli Technologies: accelerates Evolution into a Full-Scale IT & Cybersecurity Solutions Company

Gurugram | July 03, 2025 — Enser Communications Limited is a dynamic BPM and IT services company focused on enabling secure digital transformation for enterprises. With growing expertise in cybersecurity, IT infrastructure, and cloud-based solutions, Enser is redefining its role in the technology ecosystem—blending operational excellence with cutting-edge innovation, has officially completed the strategic integration of Growintelli Technologies Private Limited, which became a wholly owned subsidiary following its acquisition in February 2025.

This marks a pivotal milestone in Enser’s transformation journey—from a traditional BPM provider to a future-ready, end-to-end IT infrastructure and cybersecurity solutions company.

In FY 2024–25, Growintelli recorded net revenue of ₹4.32 Crores. With expanded offerings and accelerating enterprise demand, revenue is projected to more than double in the current fiscal year—driven primarily by scalable infrastructure deployments, robust cybersecurity services, and a broader geographic footprint.

Growintelli: Strengthening Enser’s Core in Infrastructure & Security

With this integration, Growintelli brings deep technical expertise and operational capabilities in:

- Enterprise IT Infrastructure Solutions
- Cybersecurity & Data Protection Services
- Network & Endpoint Security with Hardware Integration
- Digital Signage Deployment & Remote Security Management

These core strengths have enabled Enser to swiftly expand its portfolio in high-demand, future-facing domains, including:

- Hosted Email & Messaging Services
- Cloud-Based Firewall Solutions
- Vulnerability Assessment & Penetration Testing (VAPT)
- Data Leak Prevention & Insider Threat Management (in partnership with Data Resolve)

Operational Expansion & Strategic Partnerships

To support this growing business vertical, Enser has established a dedicated operational hub in Jaipur for the Growintelli team—enhancing localized service delivery across northern and western India. As part of its hardware-led expansion, Growintelli has also been empannelled as an Authorized Netgear Service Provider in Rajasthan, further strengthening its position in secure enterprise networking.

The integrated Enser-Growintelli team has already onboarded several high-profile clients, including Power Connect India, Apeejay School of Management, San Auto, Daga Trading, and Sales code.ai—reinforcing growing trust in the company’s ability to deliver secure, scalable, and high-impact IT solutions.

A Strategic Shift Toward End-to-End Technology Leadership

"This isn't just an integration—it's the launchpad for Enser's evolution into a truly digital enterprise solutions provider," said Mr. Rajnish Sarna, Managing Director, Enser Communications Limited. "Growintelli's strength in IT infrastructure, cybersecurity, and network hardware aligns directly with our long-term vision. We're building a future where Enser becomes the one-stop partner for secure, intelligent, and cloud-ready business technology—backed by the credibility we've earned through consistent service quality and the leadership of our seasoned management team."

This integration lays the foundation for Enser's multi-year transformation strategy, evolving from its legacy BPM roots into a full-stack IT partner offering managed infrastructure, digital operations, cloud enablement, and enterprise security solutions—positioning the company to serve as a comprehensive technology partner for businesses of the future.
